Product Constantine standout: The Bronze Age meets IN-216 Cofrillo in an ottoman. Boasting a regal red leather seat and removable tray, coordinating desk, table, and chairs round out the collection. Through Maison Gerard, maisongerard.com, circle 423

Product T standout: The designer covered his lightweight mushroom-shape side tables in whimsical waves, chessboards, chevrons, and tiles for a dizzying pop-art effect. ddcny.com, circle 624

Product W1 standout: This collection of tables, each named for a street in London's central district, is hand-cast using the scagliola/marbleizing method of mixing plaster with pigments. Through Avenue Road, avenue-road.com, circle 621

Product Mira standout: A parametrically designed pattern incorporated on the table's glass top lets light filter through to the floor below, while polished aluminum legs tessellate into various shapes. casallinet, circle 622
