

A Chance to Witness the Historically Rich Wallpapers

BY BLOUIN ARTINFO | OCTOBER 16, 2017

“Monuments de Paris”, Wood-block printed by Joseph Dufour, France, edition of 1815-30
(© CAROLLE THIBAUT-POMERANTZ)

Colours add spice in life, be it vibrant neon or pastel shades. Without them life becomes boring and your home too. To eradicate this tedium, Maison Gerad has opened its door to the world of colours. The show is a collaboration between Carolle Thibaut-Pomerantz and Benoist F. Drut.

They debuted their allied work at TEFAF in the city of New York. Before that they worked together at the 2016 Paris Biennale des Antiquaires.

Here is a summary of the show:

October 18th, 5pm - 8pm Vernissage and Book Signing

October 24th, 5pm - 6pm Remarks on the Collection by Carolle Thibaut-Pomerantz

October 19th - November 3rd, 10am - 6pm Exhibition

About the Gallery – Maison Gerard was founded by Gerardus A. Widdershoven in 1974 and is known for New York’s premier source for fine French Art Deco furniture, lighting, and objects of art. In addition to presenting important works of Jean-Michel Frank, Émile-Jacques Ruhlmann, and Jules Leleu, the gallery has been instrumental in building numerous private and public collections. The spaces are carefully curated with works that are at once aesthetically and historically relevant.

About the Artist – Carolle Thibaut-Pomerantz, is French-American art historian based in New York as well as Paris. She deals in the decorative arts, with a specialty in fine vintage wallpapers dating back to the 1800s and 1900s. She is the pioneer of the re-discovery of this unique mural art form, known as “Papiers Peints”. She is also a private dealer and advisors of designers and collectors both in the US and Europe. She also takes part in major International art fairs which include Masterpiece, London; Winter Antiques Show, New York and TEFAF, Maastricht. Moreover, she is a member of the Compagnie Nationale des Experts and the National Art and Antique Dealers Association of America.

“CAROLLE THIBAUT-POMERANTZ AND MAISON GERARD” starts from October 18, 2017 and will run through November 3, 2017 at Maison Gerard, 53 E 10th St, New York, USA.

For details, visit: www.maisongerard.com

Click on the slide show to have a sneak peek of the artist’s work.