Throughout the year, Architectural Digest’s market department scours showrooms, stores, fairs, and design centers for the best new products on the market and then brings its favorites to AD PRO. From rugs and wallpaper to furniture and lighting, these are the items our editors are eyeing. This week, Associate Market Editor Kathryn Given shares her favorites.
Vases by Alessandro Zambelli

Alessandro Zambelli Edizioni has launched with the Italian designer's 3D printed vases and receptacles in varying shapes, colors and sizes. The whimsical collection is named Macrocosmos and indeed, these extraterrestrial-like creatures seem to have appeared from a very distant, design-driven galaxy.
Ralph Lauren Home fabric

The beautiful fabrics decorating the latest issue of Cabana magazine are a unique cut of one of six fabrics by Ralph Lauren Home, including my favorite, Red Rock Blanket. Upholstered on a headboard or used as throw cushions on sofa, this design is mountain-chic at its finest.
Chair by Blu Dot

The first thing you see upon entering the fabulous new Blu Dot showroom near Madison Square Park is a mass grouping of the Cat's Pajama Lounge Chair. Available in several fun color combos including the citron and pink shown above, the bold chair design features cushions that stay put with concealed magnets—such a genius idea!
Chandelier by Thomas Pheasant

I'm still daydreaming of this ethereal chandelier that was on display at Maison Gerard's booth at the Salon show last month. Thomas Pheasant designed the cast bronze piece to evoke a shimmering willow tree with several hanging crystals.
Calvin Klein quilt

The Calvin Klein flagship store on Madison Avenue got a vibrant makeover earlier this year by artist Sterling Ruby and creative genius Raf Simons, who recently took over the storied brand. This luxe pink and red silk and cashmere flag throw juxtaposed against the bright yellow scaffolding and walls was quite the statement-making moment and a nod to the visionary new aesthetic of Calvin Klein.
Rug by Nordic Knots

Woven by hand and made of 100% New Zealand wool, the Modern rug by Nordic Knots has the most perfectly subtle geometric pattern. This graphic design paired with the rich teal hue would make for a striking addition to any space.
