IN PICTURES
Design Miami

Best seat in the house

The 13th edition of Design Miami (until 10 December) "is broader than ever," says the fair's chief creative officer, Rodman Primack. Thirty-four galleries from nine countries are offering a wide array of Modern and contemporary design, from chairs with cartoon ears to American Modernism at its best. Here is our pick of pieces not to miss.

By Emily Sharp. Photos by Vanessa Rutz

1. Doug Stan and Mike Stan
Albert Fried
Exhibition design (2017)
Homage to Today. $500 to $1,000 a plate
The Swiss-born designer's 1960s chair for Vitra is among the designs that are sold at the fair.

2. Piet-Deo Yovanovitch
Papa Bear, Mama Bear and Baby Bear armchairs (2017)
San Francisco. $41,500, $46,000, $30,000
A set of three armchairs, each equipped with a teddy bear, is up for grabs.

3. Rami Dalle
Construction (2017)
House of Today. $500 to $1,000 a plate
Dalle's modular furniture is made from recycled materials, including wood, leather, and metal.

4. Christophe Guéber and MIT Self-Assembly Lab
Rapid Liquid Printing (2017)
Parrish Art Museum. $500 to $1,000
Rapid liquid printing is used to create objects that can be assembled in minutes.

5. Maurice-Claude Vidili
Moulinet (2017)
Galerie Maxoire. $500 to $1,000
This hand-crafted, hand-stitched chair is made from leather and wood.

6. Schonick
Wooden Piano (2017)
French Piano. $100,000 to $150,000
A set of three pianos, each with a unique design, is on display at the fair.