

16 Noteworthy European Antiques Shops in the United States

Your next find is waiting for you.

BY SARA CLARK MAR 5, 2020

CARMEL BRANTLEY

People are turning to antiques stores more and more to find those one-of-a-kind pieces that enliven a home with a timeless design sensibility. However, it's helpful to understand that navigating the antiques market can be (simply put) a lot—from knowing where to shop to what to look for (and, more importantly, what to avoid), as well as the historical knowledge that comes in handy when embarking on an antiquing adventure. It's no surprise that even the most seasoned and best interior designers can be left feeling overwhelmed.

Luckily, shops across the country are simplifying the "thrill of the hunt." In particular, European antiques dealers have been curating and presenting their collections in ways that make shopping for antiques more enjoyable. Some of the most coveted pieces in the United States, European antiques help to establish a respite from excessively modern design trends. These 16 secret (and not-so-secret) spots are the best places to find those hidden treasures.

Whether you're looking some leisurely Saturday afternoon entertainment or you're on a serious buying trip to fill a home, you're bound to head home with a unique find from these noteworthy European antiques shops in the United States.

1

John Rosselli

johnrosselli
John Rosselli International

View Profile

Location: New York City

Originally trained in decorative painting, John Rosselli's storefront pays homage to well-crafted and ornate design. His eye has been revered for the past 50 years, and his antiques often find a home in his wife's (Bunny Williams) design projects.

2

Foxglove Antiques

foxgloveantiques
Foxglove Antiques

View Profile

Location: Atlanta

Sheila Benson of Foxglove Antiques scours the globe for Belgian, English, French, Italian, Spanish, and Swedish antiques. The shop's offerings also include original art and handmade jewelry.

3

Cedric Dupont Antiques

 cedricdupontantiques
Cedric Dupont Antiques

Location: West Palm Beach, Florida

Cedric DuPont, son of a French antiques dealer, followed in his father's footsteps and expanded offerings to include 17th-, 18th- and 19th-century Italian and American antique furniture.

4

Eleish van Breems

eleishvanbreems
Eleish van Breems

View Profile

Location: Westport, Connecticut

Rhonda Eleish and Edie van Breemsfresh coordinated their obsession for Swedish design into a storefront specializing in Gustavian formal and country Swedish folk antiques. Their impeccable styling keeps customers inspired, and the pair has even written three books on Scandinavian design.

5

Casa Gusto

 getthegusto
17.7k followers

View Profile

Location: West Palm Beach, Florida

There has never been a more apt mother-son design duo. Having only been on the scene for about a year now, Casa Gusto has taken Instagram by storm with their keen eye and well-curated finds. Antiques range from 17th- and 18th-century pieces mixed with a dose of mid-century flair.

6

Revival Home

revival.home
3,271 followers

View Profile

Location: Chattanooga, Tennessee

REVIVAL mingles old and new seamlessly in their gorgeous warehouse studio located in one of Chattanooga's chicest historic districts.

7

Laserow Antiques

 laserowantiques
6,508 followers

View Profile

Location: New York City

Laserow's clean and sophisticated approach on Instagram creates a sense of hero worship for gorgeous Swedish and European antiques. Expect a well curated, luxury experience from the interior design studio and antiques shop.

8

Maison Gerard

maisongerard
Salon Art + Design

View Profile

Location: New York City

Maison Gerard has been around since 1974 and quickly developed a reputation as the go-to luxury source for French Art Deco furniture, lighting, and objets d'art. They have and continue to acquire works from the likes of Jean-Michel Frank, Émile-Jacques Ruhlmann, and Jules Leleu.

9

Kim Faison

kimfaison
Kim Faison Antiques

View Profile

Location: Richmond, Virginia

On the scene for more than 25 years, Kim Faison has become a well-respected importer of rare and early English, Scandinavian, and Continental European antiques. Pro tip: You'll have to make a trip to the store or frequently check Instagram, as she does not have a website, and nothing stays in the shop for long.

10

Newel

 newelgallery
4,043 followers

View Profile

Location: New York City

Celebrating 80 years in the market, Newel's Manhattan storefront is a haven for the antiques-obsessed. Preferring not to favor any one particular style or period, the store's products include everything from the Italian Renaissance and English Victorian, to French Art Deco and beyond.

11

Giannetti Home

 giannetihome
22.3k followers

View Profile

Location: Santa Barbara, California

Giannetti Home is a one-stop-shop for design-lovers. Design duo Steve and Brook Giannetti act as both architect and interior designer with a curated mix of European and American antiques in their gorgeous Santa Barbara haven. They've even found time to design their own line of furniture inspired by the antiques they love.

12

Authentic Provence

authenticprovence
8,179 followers

View Profile

Location: West Palm Beach, Florida

Authentic Provence specializes in French and Italian antiques but also includes reclaimed materials like tiles, mantels, and garden statuary.

13

Yew Tree House Antiques

View Profile

Location: New York City

Located on the Upper East Side, Yew Tree has been around since 1991. Kevin Kleinbardt and Ahna Petersen, with backgrounds in antiques journalism and interior design respectively, joined forces to supply New York with English country furniture and European folk art.

14

LoLo French Antiques

lolofrenchantiques
Lolo French Antiques et More

View Profile

Location: Birmingham, Alabama

Laurent Gouon (known as Lolo) has the story of an 18th-century Renaissance man. Initially opting for culinary school in France, he later found himself as a carpenter on a sailboat in the United States and then landed in Miami as a chef. Working in a restaurant eventually took a toll on Lolo, who wanted to bring a piece of France home to Birmingham. Lolo takes frequent buying trips home to France and deals almost exclusively in French antiques.

15

Maurice Chandelier

mauricechandelier
Miami Circle

View Profile

Location: Atlanta

Located in The Shops of Miami Circle in Buckhead, Maurice Chandelier specializes in antique lighting but dabbles in everything from statuary to gilt furniture. Be ready to stay all day for treasure hunting.

16

Tara Shaw Antiques

tarashawdesign
New Orleans, Louisiana

View Profile

Location: New Orleans

With her book Soul of a Home coming out in April, Tara Shaw has become an expert over the years on decorating with antiques. She supplies European antiques to the likes of Bunny Williams and Bobby McAlpine.